

Event Management

Steps to a Successful Training

11 – 12 weeks before training

- Review hosting overview document and sample budget
- Talk with potential co-hosts (if any) about sponsoring the training and determine what each party will contribute and roles they will play
- Finalize co-hosts (if any); sign Co-host Agreement (If co-hosting with DOE, see DOE Co-Hosting)
- Set dates and location; determine event point of contact for attendees; email event information to info@compressedairchallenge.org for posting online
- Send training authorization form to CAC
- Review list of instructors and contact CAC for help in selecting instructor(s)
- Contact and select instructor(s); Sign host-instructor contract(s) for either Fundamentals or Advanced
- Check with instructor regarding AV needs

9 – 10 weeks before training

- Develop mailing/e-mailing invitee list
- Prepare registration spreadsheet
- Review marketing guidelines; develop marketing strategy and materials. For sample wording see:
 - Fundamentals Announcement
 - Press release
- Review guidelines for use of CAC name and logo
- Print and send marketing materials

6 – 8 weeks before training

- Determine who will represent your organization on-site and who will conduct logistics; review on-site guidelines with them

4 weeks before training

- Review how many people have registered; continue marketing if needed

2-3 weeks before training

- Order training materials from CAC online bookstore

2 weeks before training

- Email pre-workshop assignments
 - Fundamentals
 - Advanced
- Review agendas
 - Training Agenda Fundamentals
 - Training Agenda Advanced
- Confirm that all registrants have received a registration confirmation and pre-workshop assignment. (Note: Recommend that attendees bring completed pre-workshop assignment to class to enhance their class experience but it is not required they complete it, that is, they may still come to class if they have not completed their assignment.)
- Request CEU cards from Carolyn Hoaglan at Iowa State University. She can be contacted at 515-294-3004 or choaglan@iastate.edu

1 week before training

- Review arrangements with facility; give final head counts to food vendors; print evaluation forms
 - Fundamentals Evaluation
 - Advanced Evaluation

Day of training

- Introduce host, co-host(s), and instructors
- Distribute evaluations and CEU request cards at end of training

After Training

- Send evaluation forms (may be scanned and emailed) and Excel file of attendees' registration information to CAC at info@compressedairchallenge.org; send completed CEU request cards to Iowa State or have attendees mail their own with payment
